UNIVERSITY TEACHING

Since 1994, I have taught, supervised, and mentored graduate and undergraduate students at Memorial University, the University of British Columbia, Simon Fraser University, and Bangor University (previously University of North Wales). I centre arts-based practices in the classroom, and my students have regularly prepared creative assignments, from feminist detective fiction to zines to sculptures to knittivism to arts-based theses that include poetry, creative non-fiction, and visual art. For more on my creative approaches to university teaching, please see these articles:
